EDINBURGH STRING QUARTET

One of the outstanding International string quartets on tour today, the Edinburgh players offer a widely varied repertoire including major works of Beethoven, Schubert, Brahms as well as the rarely heard chamber works by the great English masters such as Purcell, Elgar and Britten .

FRIDAY, MAR. 4, 1994

GUY FEW & ALAIN TRUDEL

Ready for the surprise of the season? This is an unusual concert, this is a spectacular concert. Trumpeter, GUY FEW joins trombonist ALAIN TRUDEL. They are both miracle workers on their instruments. FEW also plays the piano - a sensitive soloist and accompanist. Together they "interact" with the audience. YOU decide what they should play from the excerpts that they offer at the start of the concert. Prepare for an unequalled musical evening.

JANE COOP

Perhaps Canada's leading recorded exponent of the piano works of Haydn and Mozart, Jane Coop concertizes and records widely around the world. She comes to White Rock in between world-touring engagements in Tokyo and New York. Her recital will include a rare performance of a Mozart quintet, in which she will be joined by leading Vancouver wind soloists.

THE ELMER ISELER SINGERS

Since 1979 the ELMER ISELER SINGERS have built an enviable reputation around the world as one of the great chamber choirs on tour today. The twenty voice choir is under the leadership of Elmer Iseler, Canada's pre-eminent choral conductor. Together, they make more than 100 appearances annually throughout Canada, the United States, Europe and the Orient. Now, at last - in White Rock, too!
