THE SCHOLARS OF LONDON

Vocal Ensemble

A pocket version of the King's Singers, this a capella quartet from London, has thrilled audiences in over fifty countries since their debut in 1970. Their very formal name was inspired by their winning of scholarships to sing at Cambridge University's King's College.

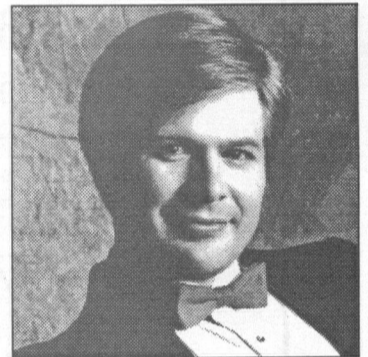

Friday, January 29, 1999

KEVIN McMILLAN

Baritone

Internationally acclaimed Canadian baritone Kevin McMillan is a veteran of opera, recital and recording. His voice is powerful and rich, his words "sketching each scene and every character with indelible colors."

Friday, March 19, 1999

THE LAFAYETTE QUARTET - String Quartet

Ann Elliott-Goldschmid, violin

Sharon Stanis, violin

Joanna Hood, viola

Pamela Highbaugh Aloni, cello

Quartet in Residence at the University of Victoria, the Lafayette Quartet appears regularly at chamber music festivals and chamber series across North America. They have proven they can maintain their artistic standards on the world touring circuit, and at the same time contribute to the development of chamber music on a major Canadian campus.

Friday, Nov. 27, 1998

THE CHINOOK DUO

Gloria Saarinen, piano

Arnold Draper, piano

Coming together by chance in 1994, these two pianists have formed a wonderfully compatible duo. Their program includes a wide variety of music, from Mozart and Schubert to Rachmaninoff and Dvořák.

THE SCHUBERT OCTET

Andrew Dawes, violin

George Zukerman, bassoon

Others to be announced

The miracle of Schubert's blending of chamber music and symphony! One of his last great works, the Opus 166 combines winds and strings, and is seldom played - too large for chamber music and too small for a symphony. An all-star team of Canadian soloists, including Andrew Dawes, former first violin of the Orford Quartet and now Professor of Violin at UBC, and our own Artistic Director, George Zukerman will be performing. Other names to be announced. The program will also include works by Rossini and Nielsen.
