THE BOREALIS QUARTET & YEGOR DIACHKOV

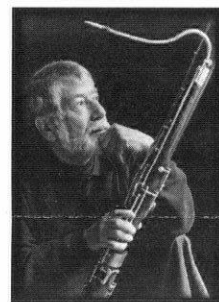

As electrifying as the name they have chosen, the Borealis Quartet are lighting up the skies of Canadian chamber music. Together with cellist, Yegor Diachkov, they will play the Schubert Quintet in C major.

Friday, March 7, 2003

GEORGE ZUKERMAN

This high priest of the solo bassoon is one of the world's great bassoon virtuosi, single-handedly responsible for making it a solo instrument in its own right. Along with an ensemble, this will be an evening of beautiful music and witty repartee.

Friday, January 10, 2003

SUSAN PLATTS

The next Maureen Forrester, this remarkable mezzo-soprano is in demand with orchestras worldwide because of her rich, creamy, seamlessly produced voice. A rising international star.

Friday, April 4, 2003

THE MANITOBA CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

Led by the eminent conductor, Roy Goodman, the ancient musical tradition of King's College Cambridge, meets the lively musical tradition of Canada. As part of a major tour, they will feature the Mozart Sinfonia Concertante.
