

aturday, March 26, 2005

Peace Arch News

ARTISTIC notes

arts@peacearchnews.com

Call for storytellers

Imagine Conference 2005 invites stories that highlight love, challenges, hope and encouragement experienced in community life.

Stories may be told through poetry or pictures.

Deadline for submission is March 31.

spot, or rather the area surrounding the darkest spot, which does in fact reflect some light...

Whatever, this Langley Players comedy/drama (April 7-30, Langley Playhouse, 4307 200 St.), set in a telephone distress centre, features two of the region's finest actresses, Carolyn Hunt and Mary Adams, popular for works such as Letters Home and Wait Until Dark.

Reservations, 604-534-7469.

Pascal Roge, the classical pianist dubbed 'The Ambassador of French Music' will bring his elegant, stylistically perfect interpretations of works by Faure, Poulenc, Satie and Ravel to White Rock Baptist Church April 1, in the concluding concert of the sold-out White Rock Concerts season.

Contributed photo.

