

White Rock Concerts

2006 - 2007

Gala 50th Anniversary Season

AT WHITE ROCK BAPTIST CHURCH (140TH ST. AND 16TH AVE.)

ALL EVENTS FRIDAYS AT 8:00 P.M.

Subscribe Now! A Membership Series!

Friday, October 13, 2006

Jasper Wood, Violin

One of the finest violinists of his generation, and one of North America's fastest rising stars, JASPER WOOD has recently been appointed Professor of Violin at UBC. He has appeared with most major Orchestras on this continent and has received rave reviews for his performances wherever he has appeared..

"Seductive tenderness...technical security, together with innate musicality. He is not just a fiddler. He is a musician."
Toronto Star

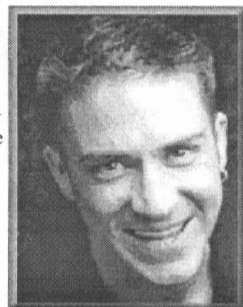

Friday, February 09, 2007

Winter Winds

featuring Canadian Trumpet Virtuoso,
Guy Few and "A Few More"

Our Artistic Director has assembled a unique ensemble of ten outstanding Canadians, featuring the brilliant virtuosity of trumpeter Guy Few, clarinetist Francois Houle and an occasional beep from his own bassoon. They will be joined by the members of the Borealis String Quartet, Wilmer Fawcett, bass, Jane Hayes, piano in a programme of music by such masters as Alfred Casella, Bohuslav Martinu, Sergei Prokofiev, and Michail Ivanovitch Glinka in a veritable feast of neglected masterworks, for an unusual instrumental combination.

Friday, November 10, 2006

The New Zealand String Quartet

With guest clarinetist, James Campbell

Acclaimed for powerful communication, dramatic energy and beauty of sound, the NEW ZEALAND STRING QUARTET tours world-wide and has appeared for such major series as Wigmore Hall [London] Frick Museum [New York] and now, Baptist Church [White Rock].

JAMES CAMPBELL is Canada's outstanding Clarinet virtuoso. He has appeared with most of the world's leading string quartets and as well as directing the annual Festival of the Sound at Parry Sound, he is a charter member of OCTAGON.

Friday, March 02, 2007

The LITTLE EAGLES OF SIBERIA,

directed by Ludmilla Stebenjkopva

The brilliant 28 member youth choir from the distant Siberian city of Krasnoyarsk returns to North America to delight audiences with purity of sound and a glorious evening of classical as well Russian folkloric song. Part of their programme is in the colourful costumes of their region, and the includes instrumental works for the traditional Russian instruments, the bayan and balalaika. The LITTLE EAGLES have been called "Russia's answer to the Vienna Choir Boys" [Daily Telegraph]

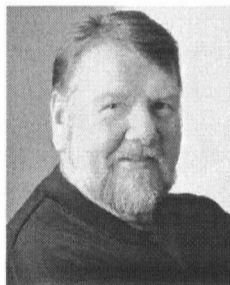

Friday, January 19, 2007

Ben Heppner, Tenor

[collaborating piano artist to be named]

Ben Heppner is recognized as the finest Dramatic Tenor before the public today. He has been recorded by every major international record label and is now an exclusive artist for Deutsche Grammophon. This season, Mr. Heppner is performing many solo concerts and reviving many of his famous operatic portrayals in New York London and elsewhere throughout Europe. His White Rock appearance is part of a special tour of smaller BC centres which he has undertaken as a salute to his home Province. Mr. Heppner was born in Dawson Creek, BC.

Friday, March 30, 2007

Roberto Plano

His name is not a misprint for the instrument upon which he performs! Italian pianist ROBERTO PLANO was a Laureate of the 2003 Honens International Piano competition, and is gaining a world-wide reputation for creating radiant colours in his performance of works from the Romantic era. [To be sure., there will be some Chopin on the programme] His friendly and outgoing personality have made him a favourite with audiences everywhere.

Membership for the 6-concert Season: ADULTS $90

SENIORS $82

STUDENTS $20

White Rock Concerts

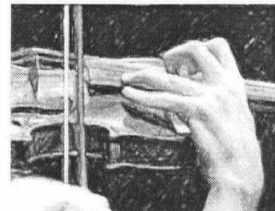

c/o Community Arts Council

15232 Russell Ave.

White Rock, B.C. V4B 2P6

New

Renewal

I/We wish to subscribe to WHITE ROCK CONCERTS for the 2006-2007 Season

(indicate number of memberships) ADULTS _____

SENIORS _____

STUDENTS _____

Please Print:

Name(s): _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Postal Code: _____

E-mail: _____

Cheque enclosed for $ _____

For further information, call 604-535-6692