Manitoba Chamber Orchestra
With soloist, Dame Evelyn Glennie

A magnificent "two-in-one" opening concert presents one of Canada's finest touring orchestra with the renowned Scottish percussion virtuoso Evelyn Glennie, conducted by Anne Manson. Works to be heard range from Vivaldi to Estacio and will feature a splendid array of Dame Evelyn's remarkable "battery."

Friday, January 29, 2010
Tokyo String Quartet

One of the world's great quartets, the Tokyo String Quartet has maintained an ongoing connection with Canada since its founding in 1967. Martin Beaver from Toronto is presently first violin; Andrew Dawes held the post for several seasons in the late '90s, and former first violinist Peter Oundjian is now conductor of the Toronto Symphony.

Friday, October 23, 2009
Arion
Early music ensemble

Since 1981, Arion's period instruments concerts, selected from a vast 17th and 18th century library, have been hailed for clarity and refined expressive performances. With a wide discography of 24 CDs, many with outstanding soloists, Arion now tours regularly to Europe and Japan as well as throughout Canada.

Friday, February 26, 2010
Vienna Choir Boys

Symbolizing Austrian music since the 15th century, the Vienna Choir Boys have counted composers Haydn and Schubert among their ranks, and conductors Karajan, Solti and Bernstein on their podium. Tradition rewards the boys with cake for outstanding performances! Fieldstone Artisan Breads has rallied to the cause and are concert sponsors [with cake provided!] for this occasion.

Friday, November 20, 2009
Russell Braun
Baritone

Renowned on great international stages from the Metropolitan Opera, l'Opera de Paris, the State Opera in Vienna, the Lyric Opera in Chicago to La Scala in Milan, the Salzburg or Glyndebourne Festival, Russell Braun now comes to White Rock! A true Canadian opera sensation.

Friday, March 19, 2010
Avan Yu
Pianist

At the age of 21, Canadian pianist Avan Yu has already performed in recital and with orchestras on four continents, consistently captivating audiences with his extraordinary musicianship and prodigious ability. Montreal's La Presse wrote, "Avan Yu is destined to become a very important pianist."
