Anton Kuerti, pianist
with Jacques Thibaud Trio [Berlin]

Memorable classical works are united with ensemble landmarks from the 20th century, in the hands of Canada's most widely recorded pianist and Europe's sparkling string trio, named after the great French violin virtuoso of the last century.

Afiara String Quartet

A new and spirited young Canadian quartet, selected for national and international touring by the prestigious Concert Artists Guild, Afiara is now quartet in residence at the Julliard School in New York. They were the 2007 runners-up at Banff, and may well be the winners of the 2010 competition by the time our date arrives.

National Broadcast Orchestra
[CBC Orchestra]

Conducted by Alain Trudel

We all know it as the much lamented CBC Vancouver Orchestra... returned to life under Alain Trudel's baton, as the National Broadcast Orchestra. Based in Vancouver, the "new" orchestra will serve many musical needs of the nation, including touring and public performances for major series such as White Rock Concerts.

Richard Margison, tenor

Kinza Tyrell, piano

Hailed for his ringing top notes and spine-tingling power, Canadian tenor Richard Margison is one of the most critically acclaimed singers on the international stage today. He performs regularly in many of the world's leading opera houses including the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala and the Deutsche Oper Berlin.

Friday, January 28, 2011
Tafelmusik

Under the direction of Jean Lamon

Canada's pre-eminent early music ensemble with a programme that delves deep into the world of Bach, Telemann and many lesser renowned — albeit equally brilliant — composers from the rich tapestry of the 17th and 18th centuries. "Tafelmusik" is German and means "table music" or "music for the feast." The name is apt because Tafelmusik has produced a feast of firsts and bests and has won admiration throughout the musical world.

Don Giovanni

by Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

UBC Opera Ensemble accompanied by orchestra conducted by Les Dala

Directed by Nancy Hermiston

(Scene from Così Fan Tutte Production)

At last, we bring opera to the White Rock Concerts' stage... The same company of brilliant young Canadians that stars each summer at the Bard on the Beach will now offer a full-costumed concert version of Mozart's immortal classic, Don Giovanni. Les Dala conducts the orchestra (members of the Vancouver Opera and the National Broadcast Orchestra).
